

PSYCHO-SCIENTIFIC FRONTIERS

Selected publications from a variety of subjects of psycho-scientific research. Editor: Rolf Linnemann (Certificated Engineer) * Steinweg 3b * 32108 Bad Salzuflen * Tel. (05222) 6558

Internet: <http://www.psychowissenschaften.de>

E-Mail: RoLi@psyqrenz.de

Translator's email: evak30@optusnet.com.au

Extracts from the Menetekel Protocols from the years 1956 to 1975

Title : Transgression and JUSTICE

Contactees : Medialer Friedenskreis Berlin (Psychic Peace Circle, Berlin)

Mediums : Uwe Speer (17) and Monika-Manuela Speer (15)

MESSENGERS of LIGHT : AREDOS, ARGUN, ELIAS

The Medialen Friedenskreis Berlin, a Christian/Spiritual community, psychically received the texts to this theme between the years of 1956 to 1975. These transmissions are a part of the Menetekel, a collection of 4,500 A4 pages of freshly catalogued protocols, amassed over 20 years. All of these mediumistic messages were left in their original form, even if similar questions were repeated. The work of the two mediums began when they were 15 and respectively 17 years old. The total production of the MFK-Berlin (Medialer Friedenskreis Berlin), the Menetekel and the 21 transmissions from the space-brothers are considered the absolute pinnacle of psycho-scientific research. Other spiritual circles have often tried to copy the work of the MFK, but its quality was never achieved. The reproduction and distribution of these rearranged messages and protocols is explicitly encouraged and is not covered by any copyright.

Preface by the editor

The eminent psycho-scientist and author H. K. Irschär assessed the Menetekel with the following words in the journal "Welt-Harmonie": "According to the accolades expressed by the press, this community is one of the most serious and credible organizations in this field. Those that read some of their brochures will be convinced." – Magazines and journals published special reports about this circle. The Zweite Deutsche Fernsehen (Second German Television) showed an interest in this circle and its form of transmission and it televised some pertinent programs about it.

Parson and church official in regards to questions of sects and philosophies, Friedrich-Wilhelm Haack, who died in 1991 aged 55 years old, wrote the following in his book "Rendezvous mit dem Jenseits" (Rendezvous with the hereafter). "The writing medium Uwe Speer, from the 'Psycho-scientific Research Group' in Berlin, (Medialer Friedenskreis, Berlin) received transmissions from the so-called Santiner long before Erich von Däniken and they pre-empt von Däniken's theses, unless the best selling author obtained his ideas from the Menetekel Brochures." It further states that: "Spiritualists have been conversant with the thought that interplanetary beings were the major players in some of the stories in the bible long before von Däniken". Further on: "That the bulk of the von Däniken stories were received by the medium Uwe Speer from the 'Psycho-scientific Research Group' in Berlin long before, but that they were not disseminated."

In regard to the credo of spiritualism Haack writes: "This denomination contains great religious concepts. It sometimes also shows a deep understanding for religion's basic truths, which enjoy an eminent position within the Christian faith. Like for instance the way God's augustness and inconceivability is lauded in the form of the father's infinite love, wisdom and refinement." But on the other hand it states that: "The measuring stick for the correctness of such and similar statements must always be the objective doctrine of the church."

Bad Salzuflen, February 2000

What is a transgression? (Transmission from the year 1960)

Well, GOD gave mankind COMMANDMENTS. A COMMANDMENT is a warning. He, who does not heed such a warning, is in danger of burdening himself with great suffering.

- A divine COMMANDMENT is a FATHERLY WARNING and an ADMONITION to avoid a situation of great danger.
- The FATHER is unable to help, if ignoring the well meant warnings results in such harm.

Had these COMMANDMENTS originated in the mind of man, they would only be of subordinate importance.

- A divine COMMANDMENT warns about something invisible, from harm that the human mind has no oversight over.

Such harm can have disastrous consequences for one's whole human existence, well, even for a whole family or clan.

The danger inherent in every warning is enormous!

You bear reference to your logic and your common sense. Academics and researchers in all kinds of fields place particular importance in this conclusion. As a mediator between GOD and man I ask you:

- Is it logical and judicious to simply ignore WARNINGS about superlative, hidden dangers and to deride the WARNER? –

You cannot give me an answer to this, because you believe that transgression and vice are a blessing.

- But only positive work is a blessing!

GOD'S COMMANDMENTS do not lie comfortably with you and indeed, you have created a world for you that makes it impossible to abide by these important COMMANDMENTS. – But I have to tell you that you completely misunderstand the value and the concepts of such WARNINGS. You are used to interpret everything through your technical concepts. Well, I will talk to you using your terminology:

- Place the sign of a red lightning behind every divine WARNING and write underneath:

Attention – Danger!

This is the only way the dangers inherent in transgressions can be made clear to you.

The suffering here on Earth is terrible and disgraceful. The suffering on Earth is not ordained; it does not have to exist. The suffering experienced by this humanity is the result of ignoring the divine WARNINGS you call “commandments”. GOD does not work in this way.

- GOD warns and hopes.

You, yourselves selected the terminology “commandments” thousands of years ago.

GOD warns about dangers and hopes that you can avoid these dangers whenever possible. But in as far as a human being is literally forced into a dangerous situation, GOD cannot be blamed. The same applies to GOD’S WARNINGS. Those that force others towards the dangers of committing a sin will have to bear the consequences.

The motivations are always of great importance!

- The otherworldly REALM, which also has its nations, cities and customs, assesses sins according to motivation.

A little sin can spring from a grave motivation and is severely punished according to the LAWS. A large sin can under certain circumstances constitute a relatively small injustice, because the motivation to commit this sin is based on good intentions. The difference is absolutely individual and incorruptibly just.

- The more complicated you arrange your life, the more complicated will be the motivations for your sins.

You will no longer be able to tell the difference of right from wrong. This is why I will instruct you.

B e l i e v e m y w o r d s !

- Regard the divine COMMANDMENTS and CHRIST’S INDOCTRINATIONS as well meant ADVICE and WARNINGS.

One may terribly lament the loss of a child that drowned in water, but this will not help the child.

- A prayer spoken after a sin has been committed has no effect!

But pray that you come to your senses in time so that you may respect the greatest of WARNINGS.

In order to understand your terrestrial administration of justice you must study law!

I say to you:

- Study GOD'S simple LAWS and ADMONITIONS that have come to you directly.
- You have judges that deal with your visible sins.
- GOD'S LAW will deal with invisible dangers – and you will one day be your own accusers.

Give this a lot of thought!

About original sin (Transmission from the year 1972)

Well, church religions talk about the original sin every member of the human race is born with. There are therefore no innocent children.

However this is a great aberration!

- Church religions are not through and through GOD'S REVELATIONS, but are made up of about 80% from the personal thought processes of theologians.

However these theologians sit on a high horse, because they have been persuaded to believe that GOD inspires theologians. A paradigm to prove the point is the pope who, in spite of this alleged inspirations, makes one mistake after another.

There is incarnation, respectively re-incarnation and every human being has experienced one of those. Where do we come from? Where do we go? Every birth on Earth takes place through GOD'S GRACE. HE gives every human being an opportunity to better himself, to spiritually grow and to become more sensible. In order to accomplish this aim, a divine, natural law extinguishes all FREQUENCIES within one's consciousness, that is to say, all memories of past lives, including all memories of any sojourns in the spiritual realm. These memories are simply cut off so that they can no longer be accessed. Only in very rare cases can fragments be received, but this shouldn't really happen and if it does it is due to a glitch within the brain.

- Every birth, that is to say, every reincarnation of a human being therefore represents a total forgiving of sins, because one can no longer remember one's sins of the past.

The mistakes of past behaviourism would be a heavy burden to bear and it would prevent all opportunities for progress. The fall from grace the bible describes should not be taken serious. It is simply a parable that is supposed to show just how easily man is influenced by bad examples.

It is actually a mistake to take the old accounts contained within the bible absolutely serious. You must take the fact into consideration that today's humanity possesses a far superior judgmental capacity and also experiences that strengthen their disbelief in biblical accounts.

- The bible is not a scientific document, but a witness account by people who were unable to express their experiences more clearly.

You are in a position these days where you can report things differently and it is your duty to interpret these momentous reports correctly.

We help you to do so!

Sinners are not born here on Earth, but they can soon become sinners, because you provide them with the opportunity. Apart from that, mankind needs good examples.

But the examples you do offer are more than sinful!

There are naturally a lot of things that people inherit, karma for instance, something most people are not familiar with, because they continuously say: “What have I done to deserve this?” – That they don’t know why they deserve their fate is a blessing! People also inherit a penchant for many illnesses. You must remember that you are not separate individuals, that you are a part of a WHOLE, namely a part of a UNIVERSAL HUMANITY, one that is spread throughout the universe. All of humanity here is however a big PART of GOD, exactly the way all of CREATION is a big PART of GOD!

Some things cannot be grasped by the mind, only through the senses. He, who cannot comprehend this, is in an unfortunate position where his senses are not developed accordingly. This is why a lot of atheists are quite unemotional!

Subconscious self-criticism (Transmission from the year 1971)

Well, how little man knows about himself, but acts subconsciously according to the prevalent fact in spite of it. If man would observe his fellow men better, he would be able to glean more than what their mien or their appearance show.

Many utterances of people can be assessed as a kind of subconscious self-criticism, even though those so observed are not consciously aware of such a criticism, because they have never dealt sufficiently enough with their own ego. This has nothing to do with experience or intelligence. If one asks somebody for instance whether he or she believes in a conscious existence after death, one can virtually be assured that the answer will be: “I am a sceptic” – or “I don’t think that this is possible”. These words are already a subconscious self-criticism. People know subconsciously, deep down in their subconscious, that a lot of things are not right, for instance ethics, morals, philanthropy, LOVE of GOD and many, many more things I don’t want to mention here.

All of these mistakes work like a computer. The answer people receive via their brain tells them: “Distance yourself from that question, because if you would admit that this question is justified, you would know all too well that you have to face a higher COURT one day.” – But who wants to voluntarily face a court in order to be judged? There is therefore only one logical possibility: Denial without distancing oneself from this. This assessment and analysis belongs to psychology. But I know that psychology is not aware this analysis. It is therefore important that you take note of this assessment!

- When people are confronted with something that could turn into something disagreeable or fateful, they try to avoid this danger to begin with.

This is why we are not surprised at all when highly intelligent scientists insist that life after death simply does not exist. They barricade themselves behind a lie because this gives them the opportunity to hide behind their subconscious self criticism at the same time. Otherwise they would have to answer as follows: “I believe in life after death, but saying this I inadvertently admit that I probably join the ranks of the so-called damned. But as I don’t want to be damned, I find it more advantageous that life after death is not a reality, because I will then not belong to the damned, the convicted. Looking at my life so far, I don’t know how else I could defend myself. I therefore prefer to say: I am sceptical. I don’t quite reject the notion of life after death with this statement, but leave a small door ajar through which I can escape.”

There is at least some comfort there for him, namely the hope that after his demise, he might be completely eradicated from the universe.

As is well-known, almost all criminals answer with a lie, when the judge confronts them with the truth. They argue, because they are well aware that they have been found out, that their game is up.

But an atheist also doesn’t want to be correctly recognised.

He dreads the TRUTH and prefers to argue.

Allow this to run through your head for a while!

Transgression against self (Transmission from the year 1965)

Well, you talk about sins. It is absolutely impossible to numerate all sins, because they come in innumerable variations. This is the reason why one generally only mentions the major sins, whilst one hardly pays any attention to the smaller ones.

When there is talk about sins, one always means those sins that are directed at one’s fellow man, meaning that one should not lie to, steal from or even kill anybody. But there is a kind of sin that is equally severe as a transgression against one’s fellow man. We are dealing with transgressions directed against oneself. Every one of you can deceive themselves, can pretend that things are different, thereby eluding the TRUTH. Every one of you can rob themselves of proper moral conduct, you can even have a detrimental effect on your own soul, you can make it ill and even kill it.

Do you really believe that there is no difference between committing a sin against a fellow human being or against oneself? – He, who believes this to be so suffers from a great illusion, because he, himself is also a human being, one of GOD’S creatures. There is absolutely no difference in this regards – a human being is a human being, no matter where he or she appears. You have your fellow men and you are fellow man in their eyes also, their nearest. This is why CHRIST said: “Love your neighbour as you love yourself.”¹ He did not differentiate!

¹ Matthew: 19:19; 22:39
Mark: 12: 31 and 33

There are an infinite number of sinners that are completely unaware of the elemental sins they commit and that regards themselves to be veritable angels, because they are unable to hurt anybody else – apart from themselves - and this without having ever given this any thought at all.

So that you will understand me correctly and because I am a responsible TEACHER from the higher SPHERES, I will give you a few small examples. But once you begin to give this some consideration, you will come across a whole series of similar transgressions you have never, throughout your whole life, ever thought to be that, because you regarded yourself to be pure and noble.

- You believe that you are safe from anything happening to you in the spiritual realm, because you abide by the commandments. Well, the TRUTH looks entirely different. If you smoke or drink for instance and you are unable to stop doing so, you find that this is already a sin against yourself. You gradually bring about your own demise.
- It is also a sin if you stress your body to such a degree that it finds it impossible to recuperate. Those that turn nights into days, thereby robbing the body of sleep, sins in an unimaginable way, because they extract important cosmic RAYS from their body, which cannot be recharged and their battery runs down.
- And then there are innumerable nutritional sinners. There is a whole series of sinners amongst them that call themselves “frugal Christians”, because they don’t throw away a morsel of bread or a piece of sausage as they regard it a “sin” to do so. They never think for a moment that they swallow these scraps themselves thereby contaminating the inside of the temple of the LORD, namely their body.

When somebody makes a pig of himself in this way, namely by consuming all kinds of rubbish just because he doesn’t want to commit the “sin of wasting”, he is beyond help. The best is just good enough for you because man is not an animal, but a being chosen by GOD, one of the LORD’S outstanding masterpieces, CREATION’S crowning glory! This kind of frugality is inappropriate. Eating this junk makes man more and more ill and the result of his sinning is then passed on to his offspring.

Cancers and all the other scourges mankind is suffering from should therefore not surprise you!

The craving for recognition (1) (Transmission from the year 1959)

It is a completely natural state of affairs that every human being has been endowed with an IMPULSE that compels him to strive for a higher level of development. Man follows this IMPULSE even though he is unaware of its purpose. What happens most of the time though is that man does strive for something higher, but seeks and would like to achieve this higher ‘whatever’ somewhere else. The completely erroneous result of such a developmental impulse inevitably leads to a craving for recognition, to a lust for power and eventually to a craving for possessions. All one can say is that: These people travel in a direction that will lead them into an abyss.

The craving for recognition is very dangerous and it has a detrimental effect on all those that somehow come into contact with it. These people are willing to pay any price in order to reap the full benefit of this craving for recognition; they feel that the adulation by their fellow men is more than worth it. We are often dealing with self-deception here, but they are unable to stop themselves from doing so. For as long as they find people willing to heap praise on them, even if it is only a pretence, they end up being paid friends of these egotistical people and showered with gifts. – But woe if these means no longer have an effect and if their friends no longer show an interest in their demonstrated or shammed mental or physical possessions; all hell will then brake loose. This negative characteristic has unfortunately infected whole nations and it is the bane of this mankind.

This putative “possession” can also mean a man or a woman. Those craving for recognition don’t mind paying big sums for their “accessories”, without their action having anything to do with LOVE, the true LOVE between two people. – It sometimes happens that the children of these pathological egotists are furnished with and showered with gifts that only have a detrimental effect on them. – But their fellow men are supposed to see them do things they can talk about. Even if their actions drag them down even further, they still like to arouse envy in others, even in their best friend or siblings.

- The path that leads downwards is often complicated, but this is even more reason why one gladly follows them.

Demonic inspiration has usurped this game and it is presently celebrating great triumphs. All kinds of beauty products are produced and all kinds of fashions developed. Even the most insignificant, poor person reaches for this dross so as not to look out of place or plunges himself or herself into huge debts and thereby even further into poverty. Some people are happy to enjoy their egomaniacal triumph for just one day, but this is an expensive exercise. The abyss looms large here, namely: “To pretend to be something one is not.”

- I therefore ask you emphatically: Is it really worth it?

Let’s look at the reality of it all: Those craving for recognition are certainly seen by their friends and they receive certain flatteries, but the general ignorance in regards to spiritual things hides the real picture from you. The well-informed, TRUTH conscious individual has an incomparably deeper insight. So-called earthbound spirits live in the hereafter, but also here on Earth. We are not dealing with the most intelligent spirits here and some of them might be good acquaintances or relatives from the past, possessed by a demonic craving for recognition. These are able to comprehend more than all other people on Earth and they have the advantage of being invisible to the people on Earth. There are indescribable scenes played out in this invisible world, abhorrent mockery and malicious glee. – If one of these terrestrial braggarts, decked out in gold and finery, an excess of silk and colours and painted with cosmetic creams, would only gain a momentary glimpse of this spiritual surroundings, they would get the fright of their life. How extremely embarrassing is the situation of these pathological cravers for recognition when one takes their whole life in both camps of their divine existence into consideration.

Why do you support the LORD’S antagonist with your crazy behaviourism?

This will only gain you minus points, that is to say, his representatives will do so.

The craving for recognition (2) (Transmission from the year 1970)

Well, the craving for recognition, the opposite of humility, is a dangerous evil for every human being. Therein lays a major danger in regards to the redemption and the development of anyone who is presently absolving the school of life here on Earth. The craving for recognition does not directly stand out as a sin or a vice, but it can influence one's development equally powerful just the same.

- The craving for recognition is an idiosyncrasy through which many have lost their life. One risks one's life just so one is noticed and so people talk about one.

If one is not successful in grabbing people's attention through positive actions one eventually reaches for negative means, one might even turn to crime. The scale of this idiosyncrasy is enormous. Well, even suicide is not an exception.

- This is why it is important that people exercise strict self-control in order to recognise whether their own craving for recognition goes beyond the natural boundaries.

Industry and fashion plan all of their endeavours by taking this idiosyncrasy into consideration. Even sport makes no exception. The falsely interpreted and incorrectly practiced women's emancipation heightens the craving for recognition and this is just as dangerous. The craving for recognition has caused the death of many eminent people or they have severely injured or killed one another.

One may not underestimate the craving for recognition!

It is a matter of course that these types of occurrences have repercussions in the spiritual realm. The craving for recognition prevents the ascent to the higher REGIONS. Nobody thinks about that! There are politicians that drive whole nations to war due to their pathological craving for recognition. The military behaves just the same. Many a general has lost an important battle and caused the death of thousands only because they wanted to shine in the eyes of the world.

The bible that is supposed to be a textbook in regards to discipline and upbringing does not provide any information about the craving for recognition, but it does talk about humility.

- No human being will ever achieve sensible and moderate humility if he or she is controlled by a craving for recognition.

Those that take the time to contemplate this will find out how important this factor really is! – It is our intension to give you good advice. We therefore warn you against an immoderate sense of self-importance. It is surely not that important to seem more important than one really is, because those that like to do so have a penchant for lies and deception.

All of this would probably be of little importance if man was really dead after his demise, if man would not spiritually survive death. But man will eventually end up living a different existence in the spiritual regions and how man kept his craving for recognition under control will then play a major role.

- The craving for recognition, present in one way or another in every human being, prevents the peaceful coexistence between races, nations, parties, groups, families etc.
- Many peace missions would have had positive results if the participating representatives of nations were not so possessed by their own craving for recognition.

Philosophies have many explanations at their disposal, but the craving for recognition, with all its associated, potent consequences, has never been taken into consideration. Student riots have also been infected by this, one utilises violence in order to catch people's attention.

A human complex (Transmission from the year 1965)

Well, most people on Earth suffer from a complex that should not be underestimated. It doesn't have a name as such, but its consequences are enormous.

It is the fear of close scrutiny.

Human beings wear many different masks; they do not show themselves in their true light. People always want to be somebody else. This is the reason why they continually change their clothes and this is why they also like to play act. But woe if they feel that their true identity has been exposed. They abhor any close scrutiny and they are prepared to go into battle if they feel caught out.

There are actually some individuals that have the gift of seeing their fellow men as they really are. Possessing this penetrating insight is a gift that is however very rare and it is certainly not appreciated by one's fellow man. On the contrary – those with this gift are regarded one's enemies and therefore avoided or harassed.

Every human being is acutely aware of the things they have to hide from others. I am not talking about the positive sides, they are readily displayed. But the secret, negative character traits should remain hidden if at all possible. This is why people hide behind a mask; they deceive by convulsively presenting a self-image that does not conform to the truth. – But woe if found out, they will then accuse the observer of being wrong and of being a mean individual. Every human being possesses an intimate reservedness that is fiercely defended; no other human being is allowed to infringe upon it. In as far as this mask is worn in public life it isn't all that critical, but it is a lot more critical in regards to religious things.

- GOD is a SPIRIT that sees through everything. HE cannot be duped. All the religions on Earth agree on this point.

This fact therefore is not hidden from anyone and everybody knows that GOD and HIS COMMISSARIES, the SPIRITS in the hereafter, constantly observe everything and that they are able to see into the deepest recesses of their heart and their soul. No mask, no charade, no clothing and no putting on an act will help here. Man isn't just naked in front of GOD and HIS REALM, but also diaphanous like an x-ray picture. From the point of view of the human complex, this is an important reason to hate everything to do with this:

- This is the reason why GOD becomes man's enemy.
- This is the reason why man disowns the world of spirits.
- This is the reason why man distances himself from religion and will only accept its tenets if they do not oppose his mendaciousness.

But the TRUTH may not tell lies!

Scientists are absolutely aware that they do a lot of things they have to hide from GOD. As they are unable to do this, they simply disown GOD, well, they actually indignantly refuse to accept any evidence that GOD exists. This is the reason why they refuse to accept the existence of the world of spirit, because they don't want to admit that there might even be one single intelligence that can see through them and that can recognise their innermost feelings. Politicians are not better off either – and the more devious and irresponsible a person is, the more he wants to hide the way he really thinks and the way he really is.

- This is the reason why atheism came into being.
- This is the reason why communism is so popular.

If a genuine FAITH in GOD is supposed to gain a foothold, man must first and foremost be prepared to show himself without complexes, the way he really is.

Those that sin... (Transmission from the year 1974)

Those that sin are slaves of sin!

Well, the Catholic Church arrogantly usurps the right to forgive sins in GOD'S NAME.

- Nobody can ever forgive sins in the NAME of GOD!

In one of HIS admonitions CHRIST said: "There you will stay until you pay the last penny of your fine." (Matthew 5:26 and Luke 12:56)

I will explain this to you, because hundred of thousands, well even millions of people fall prey to this maleficent nonsense. How many souls are bitterly disappointed when confronted with the fact that they still bear the burden of sins they thought GOD had forgiven them long ago.

You will now ask whether a sin is punishable if one never actually recognised it as such, due to one's ignorance? – As is well known, ignorance does not exclude punishment. Everything depends on not being caught here on Earth or on a lack of witnesses. But this works differently in the spiritual realm. For a start, there are witnesses here that know exactly who you are, well, who have even received your thoughts – and secondly you will eventually be caught out by your death – you can then neither hide nor escape. Your sins remain, they cannot disappear, because they are recorded in the memory reservoir of each individual person. Every thought, every word, every deed, every letter and all terrestrial events remain carefully organised within the cosmos. You are able to access this memory store at a moments notice and nothing is forgotten or obliterated.

- The souls are rated according to their good or evil memories and then allocated their designated sphere in the hereafter.
- Ignorance is not a mitigating reason. Ignorance is an unmistakable sign of backwardness and underdevelopment in regards to spiritual knowledge.

Only the perfect, the deserving and the more advanced can enter the higher SPHERES, “heaven” if you like. The spiritually underdeveloped cannot enter these spheres. Those with a smitten of logic will realise that GOD does not allow the higher developed and the immature to share one of HIS HOUSES.

- Spiritual immaturity, let's call it backwardness, is therefore a sin of omission that has a retrograde effect on those that did not endeavour to find the TRUTH.

CHRIST therefore said: “...everyone who sins is a slave of sin.” (John 8:34)

- Sin is able to hinder man's progress, only knowledge and the TRUTH can set you free. (John 8:32)

But those that believe that it is simply a case of finding the TRUTH in the hereafter are also sadly mistaken, because evil forces will hinder them from doing so, as they will find themselves in regions where evil forces lurk in order to prevent them from finding any insights that could improve their situation. Gaining any further knowledge therefore comes to a complete standstill, something one finds impossible to imagine here on Earth. This is punishment enough for everyone who acted in a careless and frivolous way, for everyone who has sinned.

GOD'S antagonist is not a fairytale figure! He absolutely exists and every soul under his spell enters a terrible situation, a situation that has no equal here on Earth! The many hoaxing, lying and possessive spirits, particularly the many tormenting spirits, are the proof for the thralldom of the sinner; they are forced to perform a terrible servile service.

- I urgently beseech you not to rely on your ignorance in regards to life after death, but to search for the TRUTH wherever you can!

About one's conscience (Transmission from the year 1967)

Well, one sometimes talks about conscience.

What kind of strange process takes place inside of man?

The Soviet's dialectic materialism makes the allegation that matter actually thinks. This is of course a great aberration. But whatever fits in with the communist party's plans does not have to be verified. Whatever fits in with the communist party's tenets is valid. All they have to do is to proclaim it.

- But when it comes to evidence, there is no better evidence for the human soul than the human conscience.

This is a unique process within man's soul, one that tells him exactly whether whatever he's doing or thinking is either right or wrong. One can virtually place all of one's trust in one's conscience.

Russian philosophers and philologist would like you to believe that one's conscience only represents a hindrance, one that hinders one's courage and resolve. This is why one is not willing to listen to one's conscience. It is suppressed, placated and ignored. But if one endows physical matter with a conscience, maybe in the form of “brain- engrams” that don't actually exist, one's conscience would have to align itself only with one's personal, up-to-now experiences.

- But conscience does not take any notice of personal experiences in most cases. It suddenly appears and warns people, even if they are reluctant to heed any such warning. Every human being therefore knows the difference between good and evil.

Conscience plays an extraordinary important role in man's existence, because even when man ends up in the spiritual realm after his disembodiment, he will bring his conscience with him.

- This conscience will end up being his own JUDGE, because it will adjudge him according to all the abnegations ever committed against it.

All thoughts and all vibrations of consciousness are recorded in the spiritual realm. Every individual person works on a very specific FREQUENCY on a soul level and this makes it possible for the individual to remember everything and I mean absolutely everything. There are no gaps and there is no loss of memory. One's memory is in excellent form in the hereafter. Man must take to listening, to respect and to act according to his conscience whilst here on Earth and this in connection with his memory. This alone leads to HIGHER GROUND. Conscience is also supported by the personal GUARDIAN ANGEL who stands at everybody's side.

Man acts unbelievably illogical in regards to his conscience, that is to say, he continuously deceives himself. An example: Somebody uses the computer to solve a difficult problem. The computer's electronic brain calculates everything very accurately and reaches a very specific result, a result that cannot be faulted. All things being equal, man would now have to act according to the result given by the calculating machine and he does so in these situations.

But how does this situation look when I compare the conscience with a computer? The conscience instantaneously comes up with an objective result. It will for instance tell you that you are about to commit a great injustice, that you will trespass against humanity and against brotherly love, that you are about to tell a lie and that you are about to create an unfair advantage for yourself. The objective result of your conscience's "computer" is above board. It would now be logical for you to act according to the given result. But does one do so? – One disowns the result and acts egotistically and irresponsibly against one's own conscience!

What GOD'S ANGELS have to say (Transmission from the year 1957)

This might sound unbelievable, but it is the TRUTH just the same, a TRUTH that has been recognised many, many generations ago. This insight has been painted in fade-proof colours and chiselled in granite.

GOD'S ANGELS sometimes come down to Earth to talk to people, in as much as they're willing to listen to them. Many casualties in infirmaries have experienced this miracle and these ANGELS came accompanied by the indescribable scent of roses. They brought salutations from paradise, they comforted the victims of human cruelty, martyrs that had to suffer and were abused because of their ideology.

The doubters and mockers say: "In regards to people, GOD is completely powerless, if there is a GOD at all." – If there was an almighty GOD, HE would surely subject all of mankind to face a terrible tribunal and HE would also deal with every single sinner individually.”

GOD’S ANGELS say: “GOD is LOVE – HE is not vengeful!”

GOD is compassion and GRACE – certainly not menace and violence. GOD does not punish all of mankind, because there are a number of good and just people amongst them. But GOD does actually deal with sinners and they have to give account for their actions. Not the way vengeful people imagine, but the way GOD has it in HIS POWER. HIS MIGHT is enormous! Look at your Earth and compare it with the universe. Remember that the whole universe is one of GOD’S CREATIONS – and remember the POWERS, the PLANING, the DESIGN, the LABOUR, the PRAXIS and the experienced required for such a CREATION.

Take yourself into the equation and look at your endeavours. Just how enormous is your might? – You can kill people, but you cannot obliterate their soul.

Contemplate the fact that GOD exists for eternity. This is why GOD has an infinite amount of time to deal with you. You cannot avoid HIM, because it is an irrevocable fact and a divine LAW that you die at the specific hour allocated to you. Once you leave your body, you will end up within GOD’S GRASP and HIS SPIRIT will call your spirit to give account of its actions. – HE doesn’t even have to do so HIMSELF, because HE has HELPERS that enjoy HIS TRUST and have HIS AUTHORITY.

- GOD’S ANGELS are your JUDGES – and they judge you on hand of your thoughts, your words and your actions. – Even if you laugh at this, if you deride this fact or doubt it, you will neither be able to take this LAW out of the equation, nor change anything about it. GOD forces you to tread HIS PATH – and this PATH leads through suffering.

It is a very convenient dogma to burden somebody else (CHRIST) with all one’s sins and to then imagine that this makes one a redeemed soul, one that has gained the right to play a harp in heaven, that is to say, in GOD’S highest SPHERES amongst GOD’S ANGELS.

Every ANGEL is aware that one cannot change an individual person, unless this person decides to change himself. Everyone can adopt KNOWLEDGE. Everyone can adopt a religion. Every human being received a mind from GOD that elevates him or her above the rest of the animal kingdom. Every human being can apply this mind. The voice of conscience speaks within every soul, in every living human being. You cannot assert that the voice of conscience does not also continuously speak to you. But you do not want to hear this voice – and you derive great pleasure when an ungodly person says to you: “There is no life after death, no judgment day, no eternal life, no responsibility, no hell and no paradise, because when you die you’re dead and so is your soul, because it only lives as long as your body is alive.”

T h i s i s i n s a n e !

An evil in this world (Transmission from the year 1961)

Well, the development on this beautiful Earth has progressed with an unimaginable tempo over the last fifty years. Man has dominion over most of physical matter. But mankind’s fascinating insights into the workings of technology within the EXISTENCE of the UNIVERSE has made it progressively blind:

- The belief in the EXISTENCE of a CREATOR is called a mental disorder of fanatics and the existence of the devil is turned into a carnival effigy.

Your ancestors knew a lot more about the reality of this spiritual EXISTENCE that eludes your spiritually blind eyes more and more. They possessed objective KNOWLEDGE, but they did not know how to conduct themselves in regards to this enormous EXISTENCE. They looked to their priests for answers about how they should conduct themselves and the priests arrogantly pretended to know all about these supernatural things, in fact that GOD has given them the authority to inform them.

This was and still is a malady in this world.

The spiritual realm, represented through educated MESSENGERS and ANGELS genuinely authorised by GOD, tries everything within its powers to eliminate the ignominies committed by the churches. No doubt there is an enormous resistance to this, it consists of arrogance and hypocrisy and it isn't easy to break through this without applying visible force. GOD'S own ENDEAVOURS are denoted as heresies, because transgressions sympathise with pomp and ceremony and they are certainly not deterred by a priest.

- Church doors are also wide open to the devil.

Just because you forgive an adversary doesn't mean that your forgiveness automatically turns him into an ANGEL. He will once again attack you at the first available opportunity and this until he feels genuine LOVE and remorse. – Why should a SON of GOD forgive you all your evil deeds and evil thoughts? GOD doesn't leave you ignorant; HE shows you the one and only way. But a traditional religious arrogance has led to a situation where GOD'S WORD has been falsified. – An injustice has never ever been redeemed with blood. Even shedding the blood of murderers and criminal can never undo an injustice.

- The wishful thinking of theological sinners speculates about GOD'S MERCY.

The LORD is certainly just and merciful, but HE is certainly not as dumb as to forgive a sinner without the sinner having redeemed himself first. HIS terrestrial REPRESENTATIVE (CHRIST) has never mentioned or promised anything like that. On the contrary – he was pretty adamant when he said: “Everybody will have to pay his dues, down to the last penny. No one will escape without paying his dues.”

But CHRIST also said: “It has been accomplished.” These words have nothing to do with the forgiving of sins, but with his own self conquest in regards to a terrestrial force and in regards to a trespass against divine LAWS.

With his words: “GOD, forgiven them because they do not know what they do”, he expressed his interminable sadness, because he knew the karma that would result from this murderous act. His thoughts were not lost in hatred, in fear or in desperation, but in sorrow due to mankind's distressing ignorance in regards to spiritual things.

- He recognised the dangerous consequences atheism would have to bring with it.

Negative nourishment (Transmission from the year 1961)

One sometimes talks about “spiritual nourishment”. Sinning is also nourishment to the soul, it is very unhealthy nourishment, but it is something many people find very palatable.

In itself, every sin is very abhorrent, but one can get used to the taste of sinning and this to a point where one cannot refrain from tasting it over and over again. I will herewith explain the burden of sin to you. This is not a parable, but the TRUTH, it's just that I equate your soul with your physical body – and this is partially true anyway.

When man sins, he makes use of very unhealthy nourishment, respectively of very dangerous “comfort-food” for the soul. If he gradually gets use to it, he unfortunately neglects to realise that he virtually force-feeds himself with it. – The “weight of his sins” considerably increases. It isn't as if one can carry one's burden of sins around like a sack of potatoes that one can drop at will or that will be lifted off one through a divine incantation (confession, absolution).

No, this is not what the TRUTH looks like!

Only terrestrial churchgoers could come up with such an idea.

- This burden of sin is not carried around like some extra weight on one's shoulders, but it becomes a direct component of the soul.

If an addicted person continuously eats unhealthy food in huge amounts, his body reacts by digesting this food incorrectly thereby depositing slag and fats around his organs. He literally fattens himself up. Every human being knows from experience that one cannot get rid of an unhealthy body through some magic incantation. No, this dangerous overweight must be gradually secreted from one's body by exercising great patience, through careful fasting, through appropriate physical exercises and through an appropriately lean, but very healthy diet.

The same process of weight loss must also be applied in regards to a soul that is over-satiated with sins.

He, who wants to be healthy and slim once again, must make the sacrifice of an arduous and disagreeable regimen. There are no other means – and any other promise is pure quackery.

- This is why it is dogmatic insanity to hope and to believe that a sinful soul can be corrected through the advocacy of a church representative.

It is not that easy!

These people prescribe “pills” that have absolutely no effect and they only harm the church's reputation. This is pure quackery performed on the soul! – Just as bad as certain “healing methods” one subjected the physical body to and which are now illegal.

A derision of GOD'S LAWS!

This overweight of sins must be toilsomely dieted off through the right kind of FASTING, that is to say, through ABJURATION. A true religious attitude will give the soul strength.

- The soul should not believe everything that is written in the bible without question, it should believe in LOVE, GOD'S EXISTENCE, in the everlasting existence of the human soul and also in a dynamic here and also hereafter.

Negative overweight will make a physical body life-threateningly ill. – The same applies to an over-extended soul!

An important doctrine (Transmission from the year 1968)

Well, even if the bible contains many false accounts, there is still a lot in it that just has to be correctly interpreted. This would provide some very important doctrines for man's advancement.

It is said that CHRIST was tempted by the devil to acknowledge him as a GOD and to adore him. This came with the promise was that the whole world would then belong to him. Who can verify that this really took place? – Did CHRIST really tell such a story? – A lot of things are of a symbolic nature. But especially these parables are of particular importance, they contain a great TRUTH that will never bring harm to anybody.

The way CHRIST was tempted, all people on Earth are tempted – in exactly the same way. Almost all of humanity succumbs to this temptation. But the devil doesn't keep his promises. He only relinquishes a part of this world. However this small part alone suffices to destroy the soul.

There is one doctrine that cannot be surpassed by any other doctrine; it is the TRUTH, the absolute TRUTH. To put it in a nutshell:

- No human being can really LOVE another human being if he or she does not really LOVE GOD!

If somebody rates anything higher than GOD, be this another human being or just possessions, from deep within his heart he pushes GOD from HIS throne. GOD represents the HIGHEST that exists throughout the universe. Nothing HIGHER could ever be imagined. – But what happens when somebody rates other things higher than GOD?

- There are no earthly possessions that could completely satisfy a human being.

Even if somebody had the whole world in his hands, his appetite would never be satiated. We can clearly observe this with those that belong to the riches people on Earth and also the most powerful on this planet. On the contrary:

- The more a human being possesses, the greater his discontentment, his appetite for the unreachable. This situation leads to a mental condition that in turn can destroy the physical body.

Discontentment is therefore the actual evil in this world and even leaders of men fall prey to it. This gives the devil his momentary victory that will turn into its opposite a lot later.

- However there is something reachable for man that will lead to his perfect contentment, because there will be nothing left that could be contemplated over and regarded superior. This is the last and HIGHEST station for man, its leads to a state of bliss, therefore to the complete satisfaction of all aspirations and wishes. This attainable state is GOD!

HE might be invisible, because HE is SPIRIT. But apart from his five senses, man also has other avenues of perception. All he has to do is to correctly develop them. The way a dog picks up a sent or senses approaching dangers, man with his inner voice can comprehend, sense and grasp GOD in such a powerful way that he reaches the HIGHEST goals of his aspirations and wishes. Matter from then on will only play a subordinate role. He then will be able to LOVE his fellow man – not just individuals, but mankind as a whole!

It pays to give this DOCTRINE a lot of thought. You have a suggestion for an excellent mediation here!

About composure (Transmission from the year 1974)

Well, it is written in the bible that: “Outside are dogs and conjurors, prostitutes and killers, idolaters and all that seek pleasures and tell lies”. In other words:

- The world is experiencing a kerfuffle the like it has never seen before. The human spirit is full of confusion – and nobody knows what is right and what it wrong anymore.

What’s going on?

Man can be filled with enthusiasm, but this enthusiasm is just one step away from fanaticism. This human character trait is a dangerous one, but even more dangerous when the masses are involved. Fanaticism is not a positive character trait. On the contrary – it is absolutely negative, because it is illogical and subjective into the bargain.

- Fanaticism can be found in all areas and it is welcomed and promoted by the devil.

Fanaticism has found its way into politics; it has caused wars and brought about the demise of millions of people. Nations attack one another because they fanatically believe in something they consider to be correct. Fanaticism has also infringed upon the LIGHT; even GOD has not been spared, because one fanatically discusses HIS very EXISTENCE.

How can one alleviate the evil cause by this terrible mental abstruseness?

All doctrines and sermons are in vain. Fanaticism is invincible, it is always, always right. A terrible situation arises when fanatics face one another. – There can be no solution, because chaos already lurks around the corner. Fanaticism declares the act of genocide a “holy war”. Well, in America, under the influence of drugs and barbiturates, it has reached a point where one is prepared to declare that the devil is GOD and one hallows and adores him on altars. This is the peak of fanaticism.

I have now demonstrated to you where evil exists. You can now continue to observe it and to criticise it. But why do I do this?

- I call upon you to show composure. – Do not allow yourselves to be influenced by fanaticism in any form or shape. Reject this dangerous insanity. – I call upon you to show composure!

For instance, do you want to celebrate Christmas fanatically or in harmony? - Do you want to spend the rest of your life fanatically and uneasily, or do you want to think peacefully about positive and beautiful things? – It takes composure to lead a righteous and peaceful existence.

What is composure?

We understand composure to mean that we do not give the antagonist the pleasure of falling prey to his infamous hustles and seductions. All fanatics become ill and they all have to die prematurely. Many of them are murdered – whilst others commit suicide. There is nothing positive about this.

- Fanaticism is an extremely dangerous poison for the soul and it attacks everybody like a germ. Therefore exercise composure, because it makes you objective and certain situations can only be assessed by being calm and harmonious.

Learning composure should be a part of any school curriculum. The church should also explain and teach composure. There are lots of exercises people can do. There are doctrines that are supposed to lead to one's HIGHER SELF. However I advice you: Exercise composure first and foremost, because it will give you strength!

Subservience is not genuine humility (Transmission from the year 1959)

The CREATOR endowed man with great GIFTS. No animal throughout the whole universe exhibits such an ampleness of divine HERITAGE.

Notwithstanding this, man on this Earth is very unhappy.

I therefore beseech you:

- Do not incorrectly utilise your divine GIFTS! The LORD never asks of you to behave in grovelling subservience. But HE does demand of you to show genuine humility.

But what does this mean?

You should not wail and cry in church or in any other place, because you are well aware that you have sinned.

- GOD knows that you trespass against all HIS COMMANDMENTS. – He doesn't have to rely on reports from the divine WORLD of the HEREAFTER; even though it is better informed about all your mistakes and sins than you.

Your subservient wailing does not change the situation and it does not eliminate it either. Church laws and the promises of mundane priests cannot be compared with GOD'S LAWS and GOD'S PROMISES. – You unfortunately lack a proper capacity of discernment.

- Those that are genuinely humble do not place any importance in any kind of cult.

Do not adore art and beauty created by man. The whole gilded splendour of a highly decorated church is purely a human dogma. – However the whole splendour of divine nature is a PLACE of WORSHIP!

This is why I beseech you:

- He, who defiles nature – and your own body is a part of nature – defiles and desecrates a PLACE of WORSHIP.
- He, who sows discontentment and participates in negative arguments, he, who soaks the earth with blood, or intends to defile the earth with blood is a servant of the devil!

A chant or a litany has no supernatural effect! Your dictionaries are correct when they give the word “litany” the following meaning: A monotonous, endless lamentation. You find your children’s behaviour intolerable when they continuously lament. You can’t stand it and wallop your children. But you affront GOD with your wailing and you appeal to HIS PATIENCE and HIS COMPASSION.

- Every cult and every admission of guilt has nothing to do with genuine humility.

It would be a far better thing for you to deal with the divine LAWS and to act according to these LAWS. There is however not one single LAW or COMMANDMENT that dictates to you to act in grovelling subservience.

- Everything that has ever been thought, spoken and happened within the universe enters GOD’S eternity – and nobody can make it undone!

Remember this before you enter into any arguments either in words or thoughts.

You will now ask me: How can one get rid of one’s sins?

- Don’t believe for a moment that CHRIST relieves you of all of your sins!

This expectation is a fanatical aberration and also a self-delusion, something monks have written into the bible for millennia. CHRIST actually described the way you can gain your redemption. All you have to do is to follow his instructions.

The forgiving of sins takes place according to a mathematical formula you are quite familiar with, one that sounds almost too simple to be true: The more weight one adds to one side of the scales the more the weight on the other side is reduced, unless something else is added to it.

- You can relatively reduce the weight of your sins through your good deeds and actions.

This is why the forgiveness of sins can only come about through genuine LOVE, genuine JUSTICE, genuine CHRISTIAN VALUES, through the accumulation of good deeds, which weigh so heavily that they reduce the size, respectively lighten the weight, of one’s sins.

This insight alone is true and genuine humility!

But he, who demands from GOD the forgiveness of his sins without making an effort is certainly not humble, but arrogant to the highest degree.

- CHRIST didn't deliver us from our sins through spilling HIS blood, but only through the DOCTRINES HE received from the FATHER.

The divine TRUTH is – symbolically speaking – the HOLY BLOOD, it is the only LIFE FORCE of enduring quality.

A devil-may-care attitude (Transmission from the year 1959)

Over the last 2,000 years, the Christian Church has not been successful in giving mankind sufficient TRUTH about the life and death of individuals so that they are informed about their very existence, their life's purpose and their future.

- GOD sent HIS SON in order to proclaim the TRUTH.
- CHRIST sends his SERVANTS even now in order to tell you and teach you about it.

The churches teach a religion that is subject to ridicule, because this religion is no longer the unadulterated religion that CHRIST proclaimed to the people on Earth in the NAME of GOD. CHRISTIAN, that is to say, CHRIST'S DOCTRINES have been mixed with fragments of alleged "divine inspirations" of ancient magic.

It therefore comes as no surprise that under these grave conditions, the falsely and badly informed priests completely fail in their mission to assist GOD. What remains is an aberration that is revealed to every, and I mean every soul in the hereafter and this with absolute certainty. A terrible awakening after a deep, but short sleep, solely at the mercy of GOD'S COMPASSION and HIS ANGELS and SERVANTS, who endeavour to correct the dogmatic thought processes of misled people and souls.

Who has the right to promise people heaven without having fully recognised their own sins first?

Even CHRIST has never done so!

Souls enter the GREAT HOUSE, the REALM of the LORD every second of the day; it is the ORIGINAL HOME of man. Do these souls return as "prodigal sons"? - No, not even as such, but with a demand fostered by the Christian Churches through their false promises of the "redemption" of man through CHRIST'S blood.

Blood has never ever effected a redemption.

- Blood is sacred!
- Blood is the carrying agent of the soul!
- Blood is, without consciousness and without divine authority, the only substance that allows the soul to be active within the body.

The blood of CHRIST flowed from his wounds and his soul escaped in the process.

Only the soul has the authority to continue its activities.

Inadequate people have created a dangerous, antagonistic dogma over past centuries here, one that in no way comes close to being the TRUTH. They created this dogma for themselves in order to delude themselves.

This delusion, this self deception, has managed to survive to this day – and it is cursed by those that have gone home to the hereafter.

The churches promise the dead a peaceful rest until judgment day, but damnation to those that commit suicide after all their fellow men and the churches have failed them miserably.

- Woe to the priests that consider themselves to be GOD’S chosen ones!

If would represent a grace without equal if these priest would be street sweepers instead, because the disappointment awaiting them is hell!

LOVE, brotherly love and tolerance, even without the perfectly established doctrine of salvation, GOD’S justice and also the death of man would still represent a true blessing for mankind.

- Church dogmas are at the root of every irresponsible act.

These dogmas do not provide man with the certainty of a spiritual future that is part and parcel of the elemental TRUTH that reigns throughout the universe.

Disrespect for GOD and not fearing an immediate and just responsibility for every thought and every deed is the result of the teachings of thousands of churches, whose architecture reaches into the sky like fingers raised as a sign of warning.

“What do I care about life on Earth after I’m dead? - The floodgates may open and wash away everything after I’m gone. I live and enjoy myself whilst I’m alive, once I’m dead I’m dead or I might continue to live in my progeny!”

This is the result of a mendacious religion that the church fathers defend in their self-deception.

Remorse (Message from the SPHERES of LIGHT)

The shift of the human soul towards goodness is absolutely dependent on remorse. But remorse means that one feels sorry for having sinned.

- Remorse means discernment.

But what are the real facts in regards to man’s remorsefulness?

Man continuous to sin until he reaches a point where he begins to have serious qualms about his sins. The damages done to one's own physical body through an inappropriate life style also counts as a sin. Once the positive INNER VOICE gains the upper hand, the discerning human being begins to regret his negative deeds. He therefore tells himself that his deeds were not right. But he forgets that thoughts also belong to these deeds, because this is where his deeds originated from and they are also "engraved" in the cosmos.

People usually say: "I regret all of my sins". But this is as far as it goes, because due to false church doctrine they hope that saying this suffices to gain forgiveness for all their misdeeds.

We are all too well aware that self-redemption is rejected by all the major Christian churches. These churches offer an easier form of redemption, which has however nothing to do with the TRUTH. He, who falls for this dangerous dogma remains the way he is.

Well, one doesn't want to make it too easy for those seeking redemption and this is why one demands a corresponding penance from them. But these people are not ready to do penance when it comes to giving up their vices and to refrain from sinning. They prefer to keep their vices – and to make a monetary contribution instead, one they can afford, one that doesn't cause them hardship. They therefore look for the most convenient way, without having to change one iota. This is where they equate genuine remorse with paying for forgiveness.

- Nobody can attain the forgiving of sins by paying an amount of money. Not unless the self-imposed church offering is so large that it results in genuine hardship for the donor.

But who would be prepared to do this?

- Another avenue for redemption consists in that the sinner is prepared to renounce all his vices and sins and to make an all out effort to change into a new person. ACCORDING to the LORD, this is the best way.

But who is really prepared to do this?

As you can see dear friends, remorse cannot be conjured up with a few words.

- Remorse is not a promise, but a change within the whole behaviourism and thought processes of people.
- Genuine remorse is a visible demonstration that one has turned towards goodness.
- Brotherly love and also LOVE for GOD springs from remorse.

However there are also people that believe that it is enough to publicly admit that their life style is wrong. This public confession has no influence what-so-ever in regards to the concept of Christian forgiveness.

- There is absolutely no need for self-accusations or going to confession if one has already made an all out effort to better oneself!

But it is also a great mistake to believe that one is better than one's fellow men. The spiritual world recognises shortcomings in people that remain unrecognised in your world!

- In order to secure one's development it is always advisable to contemplate just who benefits from all planned endeavours. Either the divine WORLD benefits or the demonic world is consciously or inadvertently supported!

However, if one does not believe that these powers exist, one easily falls prey to one's own ignorance.

The positive, spiritual world always endeavours to convey KNOWLEDGE in this regard. You are to blame, if you reject this KNOWLEDGE.

Life in the hereafter is the far greater life experience for all life forms.

- During its temporary life on Earth, the human soul should make preparations so it can receive all possible blessings when in the divine REGIONS.

You should not believe this to be true, you should know that it is!

About tolerance (Transmission from the year 1965)

Well, tolerance means acceptance.

From a religious point of view one should accept one's opposite party.

There are so many paths that lead to GOD and everyone should select the path they find appropriate. What is a decisive factor in all cases is man's character. This is why one's striving for GOD must be a character building exercise.

Every religion is therefore obligated to be first and foremost a school that fosters character building. Any devout ado harms the character, because it fosters insincerity and an asseveration that is not stabilised within the character.

Tolerance plays a huge role in the life of individuals and in that of nations!

Where is the tolerance in regards to other races?

Should one be tolerant in regards to crime?

These questions are often answered incorrectly, because the negatively inclined person demands complete tolerance for his incorrectness.

- Tolerance should not lead to a situation where a person of a superior character becomes an object of abuse.

Is GOD tolerant?

I say no!

HE is much too intelligent and too experienced to support injustice in this way. HIS LAWS are just – and justice ranks higher than tolerance.

- Tolerance may therefore neither put up with injustice, nor support injustice!

But if one looks at things here on Earth correctly one finds that injustice always demands tolerance as if it had a god-given right for tolerance.

Even the church is wrong here!

Actually all religions and theologies err here!

- Tolerance is only appropriate where it is valued and correctly understood.

Salvation Message from the SPHERES of LIGHT)

Billions of incarnated souls live on this Earth and billions of souls carry the divine SPARK within themselves. Only a relatively small number of souls have heaped a mountain of ash over this divine spark that resides within. But billions of souls allow themselves to be seduced, enslaved and controlled by a relatively small number of negative people.

- GOD endowed every human being with free will, with the right of self-determination. HE never applies coercion in any way.

A negative person does not respect GOD’S divine LAWS. He dominates his fellow men and he applies coercion.

There isn’t one single person in this world, not even amongst primitive tribes or unbelievers, that doesn’t possess an INNER VOICE that warns him and tells him exactly what is GOOD and what is evil. Every human being knows exactly what he’s doing – even the so-called insane know what they do. But most people are without scruples, they are not willing to listen to that INNER VOICE, to the GUARDIAN ANGEL’S VOICE of their own conscience.

It is written that those that do not want to hear must feel:

- Therefore do not complain when a disregarded LAW brings other LAWS into effect that might harm you. GOD wants to keep you safe from harm, that you should be harmed is not part of HIS plan.

But you demand that GOD abolishes these LAWS, or at least renders them harmless, so that you can continue to sin without consequences. – This is the most unreasonable demand, something you wouldn’t be game to demand from your fellow man. GOD must be like a fairytale figure to you, otherwise you couldn’t possibly be so disrespectful.

- Never believe for a moment that a prayer will absolve you from all your sins or that going to confession will have the same result.

- Not even GOD can abrogate or forgive your sins.
- CHRIST cannot take over your sins, nor has HE ever done such a thing.
- Only you can obliterate your sins.
- You can only pay for them by bettering yourself!

CHRIST is the WORD of GOD.

- He is and will remain your TEACHER and your PROTECTOR.
- He sends you his MESSENGERS of LIGHT to indoctrinate you.
- He sends you his trained GUARDIAN ANGELS to PROTECT you.
- He sends you the INNER VOICE of your conscience.
- He died the death of a martyr – but his blood did not deliver you from evil!

CHRIST did something completely different: The circumstances of his death brought you the certainty that man is not eternally dead after his physical demise. This great, for you occult example, has been completely disregarded by this world, by this humanity.

Egotistical and sinful people have created an ‘eternal-sleep for the soul’ dogma instead, one that doesn’t give anyone the certainty of an immediate, conscious existence after “death”. Christians only apply the wonderful and visible resurrection of the SAVIOUR to HIM. They believe in a “Judgment Day” that is suppose to eventuate after many, many centuries. They do not apprehend that the “Judgment Day” takes place on the day of their demise.

- Only through his divine TRUTHS does the redeemer actually redeem you!

Live according to these TRUTHS and you will deliver yourself from all evil!

- The redeemer redeems you through his PROTECTION so that you do not end up in complete darkness! His name is PRINCE of PEACE.

Live in his name!

Do not call yourselves Christians until you are in favour of peace.

He, who doesn’t have the courage to bear the associated consequences of standing up against any type of disorder is not a Christian, he affronts GOD instead!

About responsibility (Transmission from the year 1967)

Well, where would man be without a sense of responsibility? His feelings secretly tell him that responsibility does exist. There are however a lot of people that have this feeling, but forcefully suppress it. The fact is that it interferes with their thoughts and actions, their advancement and striving for power. Certain politicians have a special talent in this regards.

Where do they get the courage from to delude themselves like that? – Well, one can study certain processes, particularly if one stands like an invisible Siegfried next to the party in question.

Political atheism bases itself on a scientifically masked philosophy, on dialectic materialism. It apparently draws its wisdom from its observations of nature. Nature is regarded as cruel, where only the fittest survive. Only revolution makes progress possible. Man therefore has to act according to what he observes in nature. He must defeat the weaker and he may be cruel in his endeavours, they way animals are.

Only those that scrutinise this more closely will recognise that this is nonsense.

One cannot defeat the stronger. – It is already an inhuman act to engage a weaker one in a fight. Animals do not possess man's power of reason, they can therefore never be a role model in this way:

- An animal knows nothing about GOD.
- An animal knows nothing about the life of the soul.
- An animal does not have responsibilities in a higher SENSE.

B u t m a n i s a w a r e o f a l l o f t h e s e t h i n g s !

Political atheism is also aware of these things, but it deludes itself by assuming that absolute and final death relieves it of any higher RESPONSIBILITIES. Bankrupt people also suffer from the same delusion and this is why they commit suicide. Their responsibilities are then increased by a new and far greater one, namely that of suicide.

This higher RESPONSIBILITY already begins with one's own person:

- Those that knowingly harm their body and soul must bear the responsibility.
- But those that harm their fellow man must do so twice over.

He, who kills his fellow men, must atone for his action. He does not end up in a sulphur pit, the way the bible describes it, but he will suffer such a great setback in his development, that he will forfeit more than a 1,000 years of his own development.

This represents a punishment you will hardly be able to fathom!

The overly smart now appear and say: "GOD is cruel after all. GOD is an avenger!"

Wrong!

GOD is just.

HE has HIS LAWS!

HE could never allow an irresponsible person to continue to play cat and mouse with his fellow man, neither in a higher POSITION nor on a more elevated LEVEL of DEVELOPMENT. This person would fail once again and would kill unscrupulously once more. This person will therefore be placed in an appropriate place:

- He will be reincarnated, therefore reborn on a lower level of development.

He will then find himself amongst people that are not too concerned about the life of their fellow man or he will fall prey to nature.

- He, who kills must also be killed by the hand of man at some time, even if it's in another life.

But there is a PLANE of EXISTENCE between reincarnations and it is situated in the spiritual realm. This is where the sinner must gain the required self knowledge. If he doesn't do so voluntarily it will be draconically drummed into him.

All of these are naturally things mankind unfortunately knows very little about.

But a sense of responsibility does exist.

Everyone has it!

This sense of responsibility should be adequate. But those that do not listen to its admonitions should not complain later on. However, the opposite is unfortunately the case most of the time.

GOD'S JUSTICE (Transmission from the year 1960)

Most people are not too pleased that divine JUSTICE demands complete payment for every debt without one single exception.

Everything reported about GOD portends that HE is supposed to be almighty and merciful. If GOD therefore possesses these characteristics, HE is virtually a "magician" that only has to say the words "Let there be..." – and a miracle will instantly have taken place.

This is how people think – and they would like to partake of this magic, this miracle: One simply asks GOD, one prays ardently – and the ALMIGHTY feels pity and fulfils the wishes of the petitioner with the words: "Let there be..."

Millions and millions of people have depended on GOD'S almightiness and compassion, hoped with all their concentration, but the expected miracle did not take place. – Is GOD not compassionate, maybe he doesn't exist or he might not be almighty after all? – Just who can make sense of this? One thing that seems to be verified in any case is the fact that such prayers are not heard and that one cannot rely in GOD'S almightiness and HIS compassion.

It therefore comes as no surprise that hundreds of millions of people are not interested in GOD – and prefer to depend on the promises of governments or political parties. They prefer to have a pseudo-religion with a pseudo-god than a biblical God who doesn't help and who doesn't make promises.

Many think like that!

- But the true, almighty and compassionate GOD is just! HE does not listen to the wishes of HIS children who act against their own development, examination, probation and atonement. This is why the CREATOR always reacts differently from what's expected. If HE would fulfil all of these wishes HE would certainly not be a just GOD, well, HE would support injustice, damage to body and soul of HIS children and trespass against HIS OWN LAWS!

All the many unhappy, underdeveloped and ignorant people who are no longer interested in GOD and who in the end actually persecute HIM do neither hate HIM because of HIS doubted existence nor because of HIS OBSCURITY, but because of HIS JUSTICE most people have no inkling about or have a false concept of anyway.

- If GOD were to appear to man in human form, it would not serve anyone here on Earth, man's freedom of self-determination would be lost once and for all, because man on Earth would show more fear than trust. Apart from that, man would simply reject all responsibilities for his actions and deeds and leave them in GOD'S hands. This is why such expectations are impossible and illogical.

The CREATOR only confers HIS CONCERNS to the spiritual realm, that is to say, to spiritual MESSENGERS and HELPERS, whilst all material concerns are the domain of the HEAVENLY HOST. This is how it was at the beginning and this is how it will remain – always!

- GOD, the highest LAWGIVER, is almighty. HE is merciful, but HE doesn't hold a grudge once an injustice has been redeemed.

We can only grasp GOD through discernment, remorse and penance!

The highest court (Transmission from the year 1965)

Well, if one talks about perfect JUSTICE it necessarily follows that there is a highest COURT. GOD'S infallible ADMINISTRATION of JUSTICE for all souls entering the hereafter is expressed in the dreaded karma.

What are the true facts about karma?

We should not forget that this terminology stems from ancient times and that it is therefore closely related to the doctrines of antiquity. The greatest of care must be taken in regards to the appraisal of karma, because it is so easy to lose oneself in the endlessness of our considerations and assumptions. Otherworld reports about karma often contradict one another, because the fact is that the lower regions of the hereafter know as little about it as most people living here on Earth. To shed some light on this so-called WORLD LAW called KARMA takes some very high CONNECTIONS. The concepts of karma cannot be equated with GOD'S mercy in most cases; they almost always suggest retribution and revenge. But man will always be his own judge. This is how the WISE JUDGE has organised it and this LAW applies even more so in the hereafter than here on Earth.

- He, who is not cleansed and refined, cannot enter the higher SPHERES. This is where we're dealing with genuine karma.

But it's a completely different story with all the many maladies you have to deal in your terrestrial existence. You are faced with illnesses and afflictions, great maladies are triggered by accidents or through the guilt of your fellow man, not to mention your own faults. Cripples are born or cancers destroy organs.

- All of these evils have nothing to do with karma!

They contradict GOD'S unimaginable KINDNESS and boundless BENEVOLENCE. We are not dealing with karma in all of these cases, it is therefore not punishment for a poorly lived life in an earlier incarnation.

- These types of attacks on the mental and physical body of human beings are natural causes and they form a part of the unimaginable battle between the DIVINE and the satanic creation.²

GOD'S antagonist is the source of such karma! – He is the one exacting this terrible, boundless revenge. You must be aware that Satan is GOD'S greatest and most powerful adversary and he does not miss one single opportunity to take revenge on GOD and HIS CREATION. As all of mankind is first and foremost a part of this CREATION, Satan takes revenge on GOD'S hated likeness with all available means.

All maladies and afflictions mankind more or less falls prey to, are not punishments meted out by a HIGHER COURT man has to expiate, but the dire consequences of an enormous battle between GOOD and evil. However GOD stands by you with the means of HIS CREATION and HE inspires all the sciences every moment of your existence in order to continuously and successfully parry all these devilish attacks.

- All of this eminent knowledge must give you the insight that you are far more likely the victims of satanic attacks than being tormented and destroyed by your caring CREATOR.

The more we fight the devil's endeavour, the more we fight on GOD'S side. – Verily, HE will recompense every human being and every soul, this is a promise I can confidently make.

About JUSTICE (Transmission from the year 1968)

Well, Mother Nature is incredibly intelligent.

- Nature is not matter, not an inert thing, but a SPIRITUAL PROCESS that stand above all things.

² See brochure "Armageddon".

- Matter itself would not stir, it wouldn't show the slightest sign of life if there wasn't something above it that plays a decisive role in triggering its behaviourism.

The sciences cannot ignore this invisible, but verifiable INTELLIGENCE, but it cannot explain this intelligence. This is why it is reluctantly accepted, but only classified a process.

One cannot dismiss such a high INTELLIGENCE this easily!

The frightening thing about this is the fact that the whole universe - compared to man – is of such an unbelievable size. The polymorphism of CREATION also enters the equation. Man will never be able to completely grasp CREATION, man might be a divine creature, but man is no GOD.

The CREATOR is of course the highest INTELLIGENCE.

- The CREATOR is the total sum of all experiences throughout the ages.

Man was only created after many eons had passed, long after GOD represented a perfected INTELLIGENCE. If this INTELLIGENCE would fail in regards to JUSTICE, it would have to be called into question.

- A law of nature is a divine LAW. One might be able to interfere with it, but one can never completely repeal it. Once the interference has been removed, it reverts back to its compelling validity.
- Nature around us we equate with GOD therefore possesses a maximum of JUSTICE. This is why rebirth, reincarnation applies to man.

I cannot comprehend the concept of atheism, because an atheist, as you like to call him, accepts the way Mother Nature works. He cannot fault it. But he can certainly find fault with the word “GOD”, even though there is no difference there. – Only atheists make a distinction between GOD and Mother Nature and they do so by pointing out the injustices of this world.

But do these injustices actually exist?

Who amongst you professes to know what injustice is all about?

As one hardly knows anything about the whole universe and as one does not even know the visible world in its vastness and augustness, one also knows nothing about reincarnation and also nothing about penance and remuneration in other REGIONS.

An evil person has no right to expect remuneration either here or in the hereafter. It will not be allotted to him in GOD'S REALM, even if he enjoyed a high reputation or lived in opulence during his life on Earth.

- JUSTICE, a part of Mother Nature and at one with Mother Nature, never ever makes an exception.

A human being that feels that his earthly fate has dealt him a miserable card in every respect has no reason to doubt divine JUSTICE. The LAWS of JUSTICE will give him the opportunity to receive the things he's missed out on at a later point in time.

- Nature's JUSTICE, in its stupendousness, does not align itself according to losses, deprivations or enslavements, but according to the level of human development.

It is constantly revised.

- He, who has received too much – and this iniquitously so – will have it deducted from his ledger at some point in time.
- He, who has received too little, will have it added to his ledger if he deserves it.

These are the things the sciences and some of the leaders of mankind are not comfortable with. But whether this is palatable or not, it has to be said.

- JUSTICE is identical with GOD, it represents Mother Nature's whole essence!

GOD is not an avenger (Transmission from the year 1961)

Well, long lasting preparations and long lasting co-operations have made it possible to tighten the band of friendship and LOVE to such a degree that it has become possible for us to send you messages that are impossible to convey to you anywhere else, because the common thread is missing and many imposed tests are not being passed.

The bible teaches, no, it doesn't teach, it commits a great sin because it literally states: "I will take revenge, I will pay back, says the LORD."³ May GOD forgive the people within the church's hierarchy that have not yet tripped over this blasphemy.

- GOD is not an avenger, because HE is LOVE and where there is vengeance, there can be no LOVE.

Every type of vengeance destroys and GOD never destroys, but builds, assembles, heals and forgives through HIS COMMISSARIES, which are active in the spiritual realm.

- From the point of view of ANGELS and MESSENGERS of LIGHT, it is a terrible thing that these mistakes are still re-translated and reprinted.

A Christian church without reason and without logic! – A literal acceptance too the letter, one that is equal to the obedience of a recruit who may not ask why he has to kill.

Man has usurped an injustice from times gone by, namely to punish. But he punishes unjustly, because he punishes differently from the divine LAWS, something GOD would never do. Terrestrial punishment, no matter what form or shape it takes, is always out for revenge and retribution, but never for improvement or forgiveness.

If a human being on Earth is aggrieved or cannot get his own way; if he has enemies or wants to acquire something he cannot acquire rightfully, he is gripped by emotions of revenge in his negativity. If he can he reaches for punishment, that is to say, he wants to punish all those that have stood in his way, he therefore wants to exact revenge on them.

³ Deuteronomy, 32. 39-43, Romans 12. 19 and Hebrews 10. 30-31

Every war ever fought here on Earth sprang from this emotion. War ended up being the most terrible punishment for the whole world: Revenge contra revenge, punishment contra punishment, death contra death, hunger contra hunger, obstinacy contra obstinacy and ungodliness contra ungodliness.

A despot has a sudden brainwave: He wants to be a dictator, but his own people or a foreign nation, possibly the whole world, oppose him. This is not to the despot liking and he is gripped by an emotional feeling of revenge, in order to satisfy his emotions, he exacts punishment, terrible punishment in fact. He would have refrained from exacting punishment, if he would have been allowed to have his way in the first place. – Now the big wrestling match begins, revenge contra revenge – and eventually, according to what is written in the bible: “An eye for an eye; and a tooth for a tooth.”⁴ Man suddenly becomes an alleged instrument in the hands of a divine revenge. The majority is either too stupid or too phlegmatic to correctly recognise this injustice, it runs amok.

- GOD also punishes, but not out of revenge, rather through all means of improvement and with unutterable patience, without taking any effrontery against HIM into consideration and without taking the destruction of HIS troublesomely, over eons established universe into consideration. HE punishes on behalf of LAWS that no human being can abolish. HE has billions of spiritual HELPERS at HIS disposal and they carry out HIS wishes to the letter.

The Last Judgment (Transmission from the year 1960)

- The Last Judgment takes place on the day when you must separate yourself from your terrestrial existence.

The designation “Last Judgment” is actually wrong and it leads to confusion. – The biblical designation has not been correctly interpreted into the bargain. Over and above, every soul can make its own judgment in the hereafter, because every human being knows exactly what he or she has done. Don’t believe for a moment that this law only applies in individual cases. The Last Judgment is authorised and able to decide the faith of a whole planet! This COURT of LAW is made up of the LORD’S PLENIPOTENTIARIES and it must apply the letter of the law only according to the divine TRUTH. This is why every one of you ends up in the “docks” – where you must recognise and admit your guilt to yourself. Once the soul realises and confesses its sins, it will know with absolute clarity whom it will continue to serve, GOD or HIS adversary.

The Last Judgment is connected to the “Day X”. Judgment Day will become a reality on “Day X” – and nothing will unfortunately stop it from demanding an account from all of mankind here on Earth. It will not represent the end of the world, but bring about a reformation here on Earth.

The time for this is long overdue!

Terrestrial man’s level of development lags way behind in spite of today’s technology and it is about time that the world at large finds out in a most convincing manner that GOD really exists and that HE is not some kind of concept of fantasy. Everything takes its time. Such a reformation takes a lot of preparation, but in order for it to be successful, every possible interference by evil must be eliminated.

⁴ Exodus 21. 24, 25, Leviticus 24. 17-22 und Deuteronomy 19. 21

A landing by the SANTINER could already have taken place, but what would happen then? Would this really help? If one wants to eliminate all evil one has to weed it out roots and all, otherwise evil will grow new and dangerous roots all over again. A New Age requires precursors and preparers of the way. Once some success has come your way, the revolution will progress a lot faster.

- Man has managed to expand his knowledge in regards to technology – but allowed his heart to atrophy in the process!

We must now try to help him through technology, even if we end up piercing his heart. It would be very difficult to meet him any other way. An unexpected landing by the SANTINER would trigger panic. What would happen to the divine RESCUE PLAN then? – This is why man's space programs must be successful, because they give man the opportunity to catch a glimpse of the LORD'S divine universe – and he will then be ashamed of his ungodliness.

You are much too quick with your judgments – and this is your greatest shortcoming! Take more time and you will regret a lot less. There is no Last Judgment! The soul is assessed and not condemned, it can change at any time – and this will also change its appraisal! All you have to do it to be above board with yourself in your self-assessment. Most people deceive themselves until these deceptions turn into suggestions.

We look deep within your hearts and we recognise your true character and also your soul's level of maturity.

- Practice objective self-assessment, it will spare you a lot of mental anguish!

Imagine the following, you have committed a crime and you are about to be dragged to court. The accused naturally suffers a lot of anguish and would like to be acquitted of his crime. The greater the crime, the greater the fear of punishment. Mankind created a judicial system in order to maintain order and so that crime and misdemeanours do not gain the upper hand. Wouldn't it be nice for any sinner, if there were courts of law that adjudicate so lightly that they would always escape punishment? Pay attention to me please, you have a very peculiar juristic concept in regards to justice and injustice when it comes to dealing with the sins of all of mankind, when it comes to dealing with GOD'S COURT of LAW:

All of mankind is not free from any kind of guilt. You are well aware of the trespasses against GOOD, against LOVE, because everybody knows exactly what's allowable and what's forbidden. But it would be unthinkable if every human being would confront a HIGH COURT after their demise, after their disembodiment that would be mild in its judgment, but still absolutely just. This HIGH COURT may be ever so tolerant, you cannot escape its judicial influence. You cannot pretend nor lie to this COURT; you cannot use weak excuses or even buy your way out. Wouldn't you say that the prospects for any culprit are nor exactly rosy?

Here GOD lends a helping hand. HE, the FATHER, sends us a SAVIOUR. – Well, it never has been and it never will be a case where CHRIST simply acquits us. This would be a bad judgement in an unconvincing COURT. But CHRIST taught us how to separate right from wrong – and HE warned all of us about this HIGHEST COURT.

But most people who feel more comfortable sinning than living a hard but righteous existence, neither feel redeemed nor any better. – Only the church-fathers, their lackeys and all those that follow their advice like all too dumb sheep, believe in the dogmas of an inactive and merciful JUDGE, one that cries for every sinner, but one that does not have the courage to convict them and eventually even remunerates evil through his mercy.

However, there are also all the powerful of this Earth, politicians, moguls of industry and many business tycoons of superlative format. All these mega earners and mega sinners never quite feel comfortable when they think about the SAVIOUR'S warnings. Any type of COURT of LAW is always something disagreeable, particularly when punishment can be expected in the hereafter. They therefore had a marvellous idea that removed all their worries from their conscience. They coined the phrase: "Religion is the opium of the masses!" The reality is that they actually needed opium themselves to replace a true RELIGION that promises such dire consequences for all sinners.

Nothing is less complicated than that. One simply abolishes the otherworldly COURT and calls the JUDGE a figment of one's imagination. In order for the whole process to gain greater acceptance one had to proclaim GOD'S non-existence a new religion. This pseud-religion now became the opium for the masses and also for a small number of their leaders. A self-rolled sedative with a completely incorrect designation, because true RELIGION is neither an opiate in this case, nor a poisonous sedative, but a question of conscience.

- This is why one falsely portrays CHRIST as the general saviour of mankind, because a redeemed, respectively an acquitted soul does not have to confront a COURT of LAW in the hereafter.

However, as this theory of redemption was a little too vague for people with an extremely heavy conscience, it was a lot more convenient to declare the TRUTH a lie. In any case, all of mankind is gripped by great fears about any otherworldly punishment. The major religions turn CHRIST into a "scapegoat" that has to redeem all terrestrial sins. The major philosophies make it even easier for themselves, they simply reject everything.

The terrible death throes of atheists and the tears of those left behind clearly indicate to you that the fear of the hereafter, the fear of GOD, cannot be alleviated in this or that way.

- Be true and don't delude yourself.
- Take care of your health and respect your existence.
- Respect GOD and only do GOOD in regards to all of your fellow men.
- Fight with your spirit and not with weapons!

Index

Preface by the editor	1
What is a transgression? (Transmission from the year 1960)	2
About original sin (Transmission from the year 1972)	4
Subconscious self-criticism (Transmission from the year 1971)	5
Transgression against self (Transmission from the year 1965)	6
The craving for recognition (1) (Transmission from the year 1959)	7
The craving for recognition (2) (Transmission from the year 1970)	8
A human complex (Transmission from the year 1965)	10
Those that sin... (Transmission from the year 1974)	11
About one's conscience (Transmission from the year 1967)	12
What GOD'S ANGELS have to say (Transmission from the year 1957)	13
An evil in this world (Transmission from the year 1961)	14
Negative nourishment (Transmission from the year 1961)	16
An important doctrine (Transmission from the year 1968)	17
About composure (Transmission from the year 1974)	18
Subservience is not genuine humility (Transmission from the year 1959)	19
A devil-may-care attitude (Transmission from the year 1959)	21
Remorse (Message from the SPHERES of LIGHT)	22
About tolerance (Transmission from the year 1965)	24
Salvation Message from the SPHERES of LIGHT)	25
About responsibility (Transmission from the year 1967)	26
GOD'S JUSTICE (Transmission from the year 1960)	28
The highest court (Transmission from the year 1965)	29
About JUSTICE (Transmission from the year 1968)	30
GOD is not an avenger (Transmission from the year 1961)	32
The Last Judgment (Transmission from the year 1960)	33